STAT*No - out of town*

- OK 2. Dr Brzezinski has called a meeting on Friday at 1030, right after the PRC(I), between you, him and Judge Webster in the Situation Room. The plan is for [redacted] to give a 10 minute briefing and then for the three of you to meet for another 10 minutes. This will cut into your reading time for the Pres Memcons, but I'm sure we can find more time after the Cabinet Meeting on Monday should you need it.

STAT

- OK 3. Re the NE Div Award Ceremony on 30 Jul. John McMahon asked me to reserve some time on your schedule for you to present the awards. You should be receiving a memo on it shortly.

- STAT OK 4. I've scheduled [redacted] for an O/C [redacted] on Tuesday (29 Jul), 15 minutes, right after your meeting with [redacted] and his people.

STAT

- STAT OK 5. You will recall that a week ago you wrote a letter to [redacted] saying you would be pleased to visit with [redacted] when they were in town. They will arrive in Washington tomorrow afternoon. [redacted] has two proposals for your consideration: (1) an office call on Monday, or (2) visit with you after church on Sunday. Sunday may not be too good since you have a brunch and dinner dates. [redacted] are perfectly willing to conform to your desires.

1330, 28 July Sched O/C Monday Meet after church

- OK 6. [redacted] advises that Judge Webster called today and has invited you and Mrs. Turner for tennis and swimming prior to your departure [redacted]
